- * An EIDL is limited to providing working capital that is unavailable from other sources for an eligible business to continue operations until the effects of the declared disaster have passed.
- * A MREIDL is limited to providing working capital that is unavailable from other sources for an eligible business to continue operations until the effects of a call-up to active duty (as a result of a military conflict) of an essential employee have passed.
- * To qualify, the APPLICANT must be a small business or a small agricultural cooperative, as defined in SBA's published size standards, without credit available elsewhere (unable to obtain credit from private sources at reasonable rates and terms) and be engaged in an eligible business activity. The business and its principals must utilize their own resources to the maximum extent possible.
- * The APPLICANT must establish that the claimed economic injury is substantial and is a direct result of the declared disaster. For MREIDL, the applicant must establish the claimed economic injury is substantial and is a direct result of the call-up of an essential employee.
